Judging Rules POLE ART 2023

General Rules

The participants will be judged in two aspects:

- Technical part
Correct execution of pole tricks, mastery on pole, strength and flexibility. Originality in execution and in and out from figures will be awarded with bonuses points in SCORING CARDS. Bonus points will be also awarded with innovative new moves and figures shown. Floorwork matched with the poles, risk taking. Flexibility and strength are not a Must!
- Artistic part
Capacity of expression, scene presence, costume, creativity, fluidity of transitions, floor work, costume-music consistency, choreography. A performer who will show an elaborated coreo on the poles will be mainly awarded than on the floor. The “Pole Artistic” value is the most important. Quality of the movements to deliver emotions.
(FOR ELITE AND SEMI PRO CATEGORIES THERE ARE NO OBLIGATIONS FOR Choreography and pole tricks proportions - spin and static pole and third pole can be used as preferred (ELITE ONLY))

Couples will be judged based on the below criteria:

- Originality, mastery and fluidity of pole tricks and transitions, quality and capacity in connecting a pose to the other
- Right execution of the “tricks” and “combos”.
- Level of difficulty of the “tricks” and “combos” of both participants.
- “Tricks” and “combos” synchronization.
- Clear harmony between movements of both partners.

Elements that will be most appreciated

- The “routines” where the dancer will show a nice balance between tricks in strength and flexibility, only if strength or flexibility are meaning with the choreo.
- The cleanliness of tricks as well as the fluidity of the transitions.
- Originality describing a story or a mood in the “routines”.
- New tricks and innovative combos in and out on the pole.
- Musicality consistency during the execution.
- Feelings and sensations expressed according the performance and coreo

It is formally prohibited to

- Undress on the stage.
- Show, touch or caress intimate parts of the body, breast and bottom
- Have an extremely sensual or vulgar attitude during the performance.
- Express anti racial or intolerance attitude against competitors, competition, jury or organization during , before or after the performance
- Interrupt the performance, except in case of discomfort or default of the equipment.

Each Judge will be provided with the following SCORING CARDS and provide it fulfilled back to the headjudge at each “routine” end;

Judges will judge contestants from 1-10 (average is divided by amount of judges);

The contestant with highest number of points will win 1,2,3 place.

Judges can stop the performance at any time if they think the contestant is at health risk or safety problems, or if the contestant is not obeying to the rules;

Judges aren't obliged to comment on the marks they gave to contestants : judges make the final results;

Winners will be announced in 20 minutes after the final's end.

Before the competition and during it is not allowed for contestants to stay in contact with members of jury.
